Bruce Parry explores the greatest river on Earth

'I don't know anyone who hasn't fallen for the honey-stealing, boar-spearing, goatherding, frog-poison-resisting, hard-partying world-saving Bruce Parry (also increasingly known as "lovely Bruce")' Sunday Times

'Anyone interested in finding out what it was really like living with cannibals and eating rat cake will love this book' Daily Telegraph

Armchair travel and adventure doesn't get any better than this....

From Bruce Parry, the author of The Sunday Times top ten bestseller on Tribe, comes Amazon: An Extraordinary Journey down the Greatest River on Earth which will be published to coincide with the fantastic new 6 part series on the Amazon due to air on BBC2 in the Autumn.

Now Bruce undertakes an epic journey down the Amazon, the world's greatest river, its largest forest the most bio-diverse habitat on the planet and home to some of the last uncontacted tribes left on Earth. This is an extraordinary expedition, one in which Bruce travels over 6,000 kms by foot, light aircraft and boat along the way meeting tribesmen, coca growers, loggers and illegal miners.

Amazon gives a rare insight into the ways of life that have existed since the dawn of time and are about to disappear forever. Illness, accidents, and all manner of unforeseen mishaps test Bruce's strength every step of the way, but as ever Bruce's thirst for new experiences knows no boundaries.

Complete with stunning photography, Bruce's new book on the Amazon is written using extracts from his diaries, giving a uniquely personal insight into his monumental nine month journey, designed to make the reader feel that they are there with him every step of the way.

BRUCE PARRY PRESENTS AMAZON TRIBE: SONGS FOR SURVIVAL produced by Kensaltown Records, Audio CD, £9.99

In order to make a useful contribution to the lives of some of the world's most remote tribal cultures, Bruce has teamed up with some of the music world's brightest stars to put together a fundraising album for Survival International, the human rights organisation working for tribal peoples.

Musicians who have written exclusive tracks for the album include KT Tunstall, Johnny Borrell from Razorlight, Jason Mraz and Brett Dennen, Yusuf Islam, Guy Berryman, Hot Chip & The Egg.
